

..... PARTING SHOT

Most people who called National were greeted by the charming and efficient India Jones.

Eileen Mitchell, who spent years running Veterans Collectibles before moving to Finance, with Pete Peterson at the 2011 National Convention in Reno.

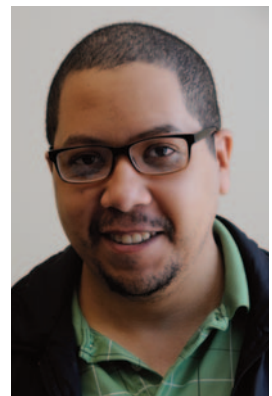

VVA Government Affairs' Bernie Edelman presented a copy of Dear America to Arlo Guthrie at the 2007 Springfield Convention.

Farewell

Because of the drastic fiscal impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, VVA staff was reduced nearly by half. We'll miss them. They will miss you, the members. Here are snapshots of some of the staffers who will be leaving. ■

Communications Director Mokie Porter, introducing the Ukrainian delegation during the "Breakthrough" seminar at the 2006 Tucson Leadership Conference.

Daniel Devora performed the myriad tasks involved in keeping the physical office running.

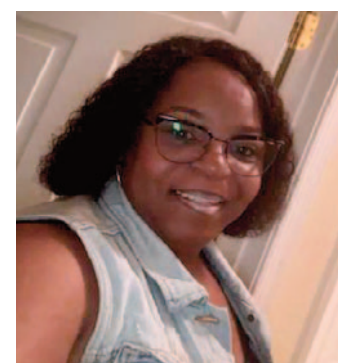

Tracie Houston rose from The VVA Veteran admin assistant to become VVA's Director of Membership.

Deborah Williams evolved from Veterans Collectibles staff to become VVA's Director of Finance.

Kristofer Goldsmith, Chief Investigator and Associate Director for Policy and Government Affairs.

Samala Parker Satterwhite, Director of Human Resources and Administration.
